

Julia B. Fee Sotheby's Intl. Realty Adds Realtors For Rivertowns

by Tom Renner Real Estate 02/24/15

From left, Maria Carlino, Beth Hargraves and Bernadette Haley. Photo Credit: Contributed

IRVINGTON, N.Y. -- Julia B. Fee Sotheby's International Realty announced that Beth Hargraves, Maria Carlino and Bernadette Haley have joined the firm and will work as a team.

The team will be the first to operate out of the company's new Irvington brokerage, which will open in late April 2015 and will primarily service Westchester County's communities along the Hudson River including Ardsley, Briarcliff Manor, Cortlandt, Croton-On-Hudson, Dobbs Ferry, Hastings-On-Hudson, Irvington, Ossining, Peekskill, Sleepy Hollow and Tarrytown.

In the intervening period, the team will work out of the company's Bronxville brokerage.

"The diverse strengths and styles that each of these sales professionals brings to the table makes for a winning combination," said Virginia Doetsch, co-manager of Julia B. Fee Sotheby's International Realty's Irvington brokerage. "Beth's extremely approachable demeanor makes clients feel instantly comfortable, Maria's buyers and sellers benefit from her highly supportive approach as well as her strong background in negotiations, and Bernadette's eye for detail and powerful analytical skills always set her clients at ease that their business is in the right hands." Jason Wilson, co-manager of the Irvington brokerage with Doetsch, agreed. "Working together, these three agents will be an unbeatable force in Westchester County's Rivertowns markets, an area that is sought after more and more for its relaxed lifestyle, supportive community atmosphere and incredibly convenient commute to New York City."

Hargraves has consistently ranked as Houlihan Lawrence's number-one agent in single-family home sales in the Rivertowns, and has achieved more than $130 million in sales volume since joining that firm in 2005. Her success has been recognized with numerous awards over the years including the Westchester County Board of Realtors' Rookie of the Year award in 2005 as well as her former firm's Diamond, Platinum, Gold and Emerald Awards.

Carlino has been a consistent top producer and brings several years of market knowledge and real estate expertise in the Rivertowns area. Prior to her real estate career, Carlino owned her own information technology consulting firm, where she acquired skills in negotiating contracts that still serve her well with clients today.

Haley's results-driven energy and analytical slant originate from her previous 30-year career in magazine publishing, in which she served as the first-ever female publisher of America's largest monthly magazine, Reader's Digest, as well as launch publisher of Rodale's Organic Style and Hearst Magazines Quick & Simple. Her unique background translates into an ability to be meticulous and detail-oriented in every transaction.

Though the three agents are joining together as a team for the first time, all three have worked together closely over the years, with Haley even having done her first deal ever with Hargraves. The team stated that it came to Julia B. Fee Sotheby's International Realty to take advantage of the brand's global network and worldwide marketing reach, as well as for the opportunity to become pioneering representatives of the brand in the Rivertowns.

Get Breaking News In Your Inbox

Popular

- 1 Retired White Plains Cop Kills Himself, Teenage Daughters In Harrison Home
- 2 Details Emerge, But Questions Remain In Harrison Double Murder-Suicide
- 3 Former White Plains Officer Left Suicide Note At Harrison Murder Scene
- 4 Overturned Vehicles, Accidents Reported As Snow Falls In Westchester
- 5 Irvington Man Admits Role In \$30M Insurance Fraud Scheme