That renovated Colonial at 3420 Congress St., which is now on the market, is in the Greenfield Hill section of town, an area listed on the National Register of Historic Places and known for its popular annual Dogwood Festival each spring. The Greenfield Hill Congregational Church, which hosts the festival, is within walking distance of the house, as is the Greenfield Hill Grange Hall and the Connecticut Audubon Society's Larsen Sanctuary.

The house was built in 1959 and features 4,105 square feet of living space, which was updated in a way that blends classic Colonial elegance with modern style. The current owners have taken it from the lemon-yellow Formica kitchen that greeted them when they first moved in to a stylish gourmet kitchen with honed black granite counters and sizable Carrera marble center island as well as updated baths, two with radiant heated floors.

dishwasher and warming drawer. It also has glass-front cabinets, a good size eat-in area with a built-in desk and door to the deck, two stainless sinks -- one on the center island -- and another beverage refrigerator which augments the entertainment value of the house.

Off the kitchen is a mudroom with a built-in bench, organizers, a laundry area, and door to the deck. There are also stairs from the kitchen to the large bonus room above the two-car attached garage. This room has flexible use. The current family, which converted this space, uses it as a family room.

On the second floor there are four bedrooms, two en suite. These are the two baths that have radiant heated floors. The master suite has his-and-hers walk-in closets and its bath has a marble tile floor in a honeycomb pattern and gray marble subway tile backsplash.

The lower level was renovated in 2013 and features numerous amenities including a guest area that could also be used as an exercise room, playroom and half bath. There is also an interior door to access the garage.
