
An Elegant Literary Landmark, Just Like New

Feb. 24, 2015 10:32 a.m. ET

1 of 15

Architect Richard Bergmann was looking for a home in downtown New Canaan, Conn., that could also accommodate an office for his ...

Location: New Canaan, United States

Price: $3,500,000

This New Canaan, Conn. property was once home to a legendary literary editor who guided the works of F. Scott Fitzgerald, Ernest Hemingway and Thomas Wolfe. Its current owners rescued it from disrepair and restored many of the original features, while adding an elegant and modern touch of their own. --Erin McCarthy