The Darien Times

To the Editor:

We wanted to thank the community for its generous support of the Darien Community Association's Bootleggers' Ball fundraiser.

This fun, prohibition-style event engaged an energetic crowd of supporters, many dressed to the nines with stylish dresses, feathers and fedoras. The evening was all for a good cause — proceeds benefitting the DCA mission, including scholarships for Darien High School graduates. The DCA is the largest provider of scholarships at the high school, awarding $50,000 each year.

We are grateful for all the local businesses who donated items to our silent auction, as well as David Harvey Jewelers and our sponsors: TD Bank, Baywater Properties, Nielsen's Fine Flowers, Penny and Ed Glassmeyer, Ring's End, Abercrombie Burns McKiernan and Company Insurance, Charles Schwab, Darien Police Association, Darien Rowayton Bank, David M. Osherow D.D.S., Neil Hauck Architects, Webster Bank and William Pitt Sotheby's.
