Westport, Conn. (March 3, 2015) — William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty (<http://www.williampitt.com/eng>) today announced that Cyd Hamer has been recognized as a top producing agent for 2014, ranking no. 1 in units for 2014 in the firm's Westport brokerage for the second year in a row. To recognize this outstanding performance in the industry, Cyd received the coveted "Platinum Award," one of the highest recognitions granted by the firm.

William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty determines eligibility for awards based on two types of criteria, including gross commission and units earned. The Platinum Award is given to sales professionals who achieve high dollar volume and unit sales for the calendar year.

"Cyd is one of our top-producing agents with an excellent track record in bringing buyers and sellers together," said Marc Caldarone, manager of William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty's Westport brokerage. "She has great passion for what she does, and undoubtedly deserves this great honor. I am proud to have Cyd on the Westport team."

Cyd's vast experience in advertising, marketing, real estate investing and internet businesses provide her with strategic ways to inform clients and aid them in making the wisest investments possible. As a Greenwich native and previous resident of various Fairfield County towns including Darien and the Shippan Point section of Stamford, she is very familiar with the communities of lower Fairfield County. Cyd is currently an active resident of Westport, where she lives with her husband and four children.

"My goal is to provide the best customer service and pay special attention to detail, enabling the smoothest real estate transaction possible," said Cyd. "I'm honored to be recognized for my efforts and thoroughly enjoy sharing my clients' journeys. I'm proud that my business continues to grow from all the referrals and recommendations from clients that have gotten me to where I am in my business today. Here's to yet another year of great success!"
