Wilton, Conn. – March 10, 2015 – William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty (<http://www.williampitt.com>) announced today that the firm has listed an updated Colonial home in the town of Wilton, Conn., that has been chosen to be featured as a “dream home” on an episode of HGTV's “Property Brothers.” The residence, which is represented by Southport agent Lois Lipow and offered at $1,139,000, was recently filmed for an episode set to air this coming fall.

“Property Brothers (<http://www.hgtv.com/shows/property-brothers>)” is a one hour reality show in which twin brothers Jonathan and Drew Scott help home buyers find, purchase and transform “fixer-uppers” into dream homes, while maintaining a strict budget. Each episode begins with the brothers showcasing a home that features everything on the future homeowner's wish-list, eventually leading them to homes that are more in their price range, but still have great potential to become their dream home.

This updated, 5,000 square-foot residence, originally constructed in 1983, offers numerous features and characteristics that fit the criteria for the show. On the main level, a gourmet, eat-in kitchen opens to a spacious family room complete with a wet bar and fireplace. The home also boasts a large, formal dining room and brand-new wraparound deck that overlooks a large, level backyard. The property's outdoor space includes an expansive fieldstone patio, a waterproof ceiling, as well as large dining and seating areas with a fan and chandelier. The home's master suite features a fireplace, balcony and walk-in closet in addition to a spacious spa-like bathroom, which contains a sauna.

"I can see why the show's representatives asked me to tour this beautiful home," said Lipow. "The residence is perfect for entertaining, containing exquisite one-of-a-kind indoor and outdoor features and amenities in an undoubtedly sleek and stylish atmosphere. It's no wonder the home's characteristics fit the show participants' 'dream home' criteria."

For more information on the property, please contact listing agent Lois Lipow by phone at 203.767.2335.
