and has M.S. degrees from Hunter College in both guidance and counseling and education.

Mantis, a former top-producing sales agent of Coldwell Banker, is a licensed real estate sales person with over 10 years of experience. During her time at Coldwell, she earned numerous awards and regularly ranked in the top 2 percent of all Coldwell agents nationwide. She is also a certified relocation specialist and new homes specialist, recognized by Coldwell as a previews property specialist.

Mantis earned a B.S. in occupational therapy from Tufts University and an M.A. in human resources management from The New School for Social Research. She worked as a pediatric occupational therapist in Westchester public schools for 25 years before launching her real estate career.

Valvano has been recognized by the Hudson Gateway Association of Realtors throughout her 20-year real estate career with awards for her professional service and excellence in home sales. She is a member of the National Association of Realtors, New York State Association of Realtors, Hudson Gateway Association of Realtors and the Hudson Gateway Multiple Listing Service.

Previously, Valvano was in the banking industry for over 20 years. She was involved in sales, management and financial services.

Kaplan has specialized in residential real estate for 10 years, serving home buyers and sellers throughout Westchester. She works with single-family homes, condominiums, co-ops and new construction homes.

Kaplan earned a B.A. in economics from Northwestern University and a J.D. from Harvard Law School. She worked as a real estate attorney at the law firms of Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson and Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison before becoming a licensed associate real estate broker.

Field began her real estate career in 1986 as a licensed salesperson, gaining her associate broker license four years later. Over the years, she has consistently achieved record-breaking, multi-million dollar sales, earning her awards and designations, and has achieved Graduate Real Estate Institute designation.

At Coldwell Banker's Scarsdale brokerage, Field was ranked among the top 7 percent of all company sales associates internationally, and in the top 1 percent nationwide. She is the recipient of multiple Hudson Gateway Association of Realtors Gold awards.
