NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. -- Julia B. Fee Sotheby's International Realty announced Monday the firm has listed an updated chalet-style home in the town of New Rochelle that has been chosen to be featured as a "dream home" on an episode of HGTV's "Property Brothers."

The residence, which is represented by Larchmont agent Carola Schonander and offered for $1,099,000, recently was filmed for an episode set to air this coming fall.

"Property Brothers" is a one-hour reality show in which twin brothers Jonathan and Drew Scott help home buyers find, purchase and transform "fixer-uppers" into dream homes, while maintaining a strict budget.

Each episode begins with the brothers showcasing a home that features everything on the future homeowner's wish-list, eventually leading them to homes that are more in their price range, but still have great potential to become their dream home.

The renovated home has 4,500 square feet and includes a center-hall entrance with 16-foot ceilings and a modern, open floor plan throughout. The home, fully equipped with amenities and features, retains much of its original architectural integrity, boasting interior details, such as wood-beamed cathedral ceilings, four fireplaces, a turret sitting area, hardwood floors and more.

The residence's kitchen offers oversized windows, and is located adjacent to a spacious living room with a stone fireplace and French doors that open to a sweeping private yard with mature landscaping. Upstairs, three bedrooms, including an amenity-filled master bath, can be found.

"I can see why this fantastic residence was chosen to be featured as a dream home on the show," Schonander said. "Not only does it have a unique past and undeniable rustic charm, but it also contains all the contemporary luxuries needed to live a fine lifestyle among the fabulous surroundings and offerings of this Westchester County town. It was a pleasure to have the Property Brothers and crew in the house, and we all can't wait for this very special episode to air."
