This annual award recognizes service professionals in more than 45 markets who provide quality services to their clients. To choose recipients, the Five Star program conducts market-specific research to identify reputable and trustworthy professionals in the industry. The 2015 agent winners were showcased in a special advertising section of the March issue of Connecticut Magazine.

William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty Stamford agent recipients for this year's "2015 Five Star Real Estate Agent" award included Judy Amster, Keith Balentine, Joelle Bentley, Joan Breslow, Eileen Carpanzano, June Rosenthal and Linda Sorbo.

"The Five Star award is a huge testament to our agents' emphasis on outstanding customer service," said Paul Breunich, president and CEO of William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty. "I would like to congratulate all agent recipients and thank them for their outstanding customer service and positive impact on the brand."
