

REAL ESTATE

WHAT YOU CAN BUY

Homes in the $500,000s

The Advocate and BlockShopper Connecticut scour the region to find what range of properties you can get for their money. This week What You Can Buy features homes in the $500,000s.

209 Brookdale Road, Stamford

This traditional Colonial on a level, treed North Stamford acre is 1.5 miles north of the Merritt Parkway and shopping.

The home features tons of natural light and hardwood floors throughout, as well as a living room with fireplace that opens to the dining room for ease of entertaining.

The eat-in kitchen boasts granite countertops, stainless steel appliances and maple cabinets. The sun-filled family room comes with sky lights.

The house also has an inviting den with wood beams and fireplace. A laundry room/half bath round out the first floor.

The second floor features the master bedroom with a walk-in closet and full bath, along with three additional bedrooms with plenty of closet space and full bath.

WILLIAM PITT AND JULIA B. FEE SOTHEBY'S

Built in 1967, the nine-room home also has a two-car attached garage, electric heating, an attic fan, and a full heated unfinished basement with interior access and storage.

For schools, the property is zoned for Northeast Elementary School, Turn of the Mill School and Westhill School.

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2.5

Square feet: 2,760

Price: $599,999

Listing agency: W

Julia B. Fee Sotheby's Realty, 203-327-2050