William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty has been named a Silver Award winner by the Cartus Broker Network. The award will be presented at the annual Broker Network International Conference to be held from March 10 to 12 at the JW Marriott Desert Springs Resort & Spa in Palm Desert, California. Cartus is a worldwide leader in employee relocation solutions.

The Silver Award is one of three Excellence Awards presented to principal brokers. Excellence Award recognition is based on performance results related to a wide variety of goals including customer service, cost management, and effective analysis and marketing of homes. Only 39 percent of the Network's principal brokers received Excellence Awards in 2014.

"The Cartus Broker Network is distinguished by its high performing, professional, and dedicated membership," said Gerald Pearce, Cartus executive vice president, Broker Services and Affinity Services. "William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty went over and above in 2014, and I am pleased to recognize them for their superior performance."

"We are honored to be a part of the Cartus Broker Network and extremely pleased to have earned a Silver Award for our successful 2014," said Jane McWilliams, vice president of Business Development Relocation for William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty. "We look forward to continuing to deliver results for Cartus, its clients, and their transferring employees."
