The Community Cooperative Nursery School in Rowayton is holding its 53rd annual art show and sale June 4 through 7. More than 80 professional artists will offer original artwork for sale in this community event.

The show assembles a diverse range of original art to suit any style and budget under one roof, and where 40% of all proceeds will be donated to CCNS and are tax-deductible for the buyer.

This year's featured artist is a painter, teacher, lecturer, and the writer and artist on the Emmy Award-winning PBS series Landscapes Through Time with David Dunlop. He is also on the faculty of the Silvermine School of Art in New Canaan. Based in Wilton, Dunlop is widely known in the local art scene for his landscape paintings that draw from both Renaissance techniques and modern-day science.

"We are incredibly excited to have Mr. Dunlop as our featured artist this year," said Molly Crosland, CCNS art show co-chairman. "David's use of unique materials combined with his expert technique and innovative use of light are awe-inspiring."

Opening night is Thursday, June 4 from 7 to 10 p.m. The show continues Friday, June 5 from 6 to 10 p.m., Saturday, June 6 from 4 to 8 p.m. and Sunday, June 7 from 1 to 4 p.m.

Admission for opening night is $40, which includes drinks, hors d'oeuvres, valet service and live music by singer-songwriter and pianist Michelle DeAngelis. Admission on Friday is $15 and features live music.

Organizations supporting this year's show include Jerry's Artorama, Lillian August, William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty.

The school and the art show & sale are located at 4 Trolley Place in Rowayton, Connecticut.
