LARCHMONT, N.Y. -- Julia B. Fee Sotheby's International Realty announced Wednesday that Gay Rosen, an award-winning, top-producing sales agent for the firm's Larchmont brokerage, was featured in the Westchester County edition of Top Agent Magazine.

Rosen was selected for her successful networking and commitment to delivering continuous top-notch real estate service to her clients. Rosen, formerly of Houlihan Lawrence, has been involved in Westchester County real estate for 11 years. She specializes in representing both buyers and sellers of properties ranging from small co-ops to the luxury market and waterfront properties, and also brings strong online marketing and negotiation skills.

Rosen has received numerous awards and professional recognitions including the 2013 N.Y. State Certified Residential Specialist of the Year; 2013 Diamond Award Recipient from the EAMLS; Houlihan Lawrence Top 100 Agents from 2010 to 2013; Top Five Star Agent from 2010 to 2014; and she has been the N.Y. State Certified Public Relations chairperson since 2013.

Top Agent Magazine reviews nominations of stand-out agents to feature who are top producers in the industry. The magazine primarily aims to serve as an educational publication, providing insight into how the finest real estate agents and brokers in the business have achieved such success. All sales professionals included have earned their spot as a result of their dedication to providing the best real estate service possible.

"Gay deserves every bit of this honor," said Carolyn Fugere, manager of Julia B. Fee Sotheby's International Realty's Larchmont brokerage.

"She is always eager and willing to help her clients with the utmost care, and is extremely knowledgeable, continually sharing riveting topics and content through her blog writing, which is just one more of her many talents. Gay has been nothing but a positive contribution to the team, and we are all so very proud of her for this great accomplishment."

Rosen has always been active within the Westchester County community, where she currently resides, and continually serves both the community and clients alike.
