the shopping center at 9:45 p.m., when Mary Ann Hall's Music for Children will entertain the crowd.

The event, a parade of children riding bikes, scooters, wagons and other non-motorized vehicles, is hosted this year by Darien VFW Post 6933. The Post's color guard will lead the parade with local and state officials. The event will also feature appearances by "Uncle Sam" and fire trucks from the Darien, Noroton and Noroton Heights fire departments.

There will be contests in several categories, including "best decorated" category for a vehicle with wheels, a "best decorated" category for a float; and a "most patriotic" dressed family category. Winners will be announced at 10:20 a.m., and they will lead the parade as Honorary Grand Marshals.

The parade travels down the Post Road and ends in Tilley Pond Park, where there will be food vendors and live entertainment by the Ray and Jay Band. There will also be a number of children's activities taking place there, including face painting and a selection of removable children's tattoos. This event is free and open to the public, with a suggested donation of $10 per family payable at Tilley Pond Park to benefit the Post's current restoration of the former Chapel of Fitch's Home for Soldiers and their Orphans (the first veterans' home in the United States, which was established in town just after the Civil War).
