STAMFORD, Conn. – William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty recently announced Carol Frattaroli, an agent from the firm's North Stamford brokerage, took home the woman's crown at the 2015 Stamford Amateur Golf Championship.

The competition took place June 28 at Sterling Farms Golf Course in Stamford.

Frattaroli, a native of Stamford, effortlessly led the front nine holes, momentarily falling back on the 11th hole, according to a press release. Remaining strong, she eventually caught the lead, concluding the women's portion of the championship with a perfect putt, according to a press release.

"On behalf of the entire North Stamford brokerage, I would like to congratulate Carol for her victory in this past weekend's tournament," said Doreen Bronner, manager of William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty's North Stamford brokerage, in a press release. "This annual championship has been a part of the Stamford community for many years, and being able to take home the crown is quite the feat. We are all very impressed, and applaud Carol for this great accomplishment."
