New Canaan, Conn. – August 21, 2015 – William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty (<http://www.williampitt.com>) announced today that the firm has listed a stone and shingle custom home built by its current owners. The residence, which is located in the town of New Canaan, Conn., overlooking the Five Mile River, is listed with New Canaan agents Lisa O'Rourke and Judy Gibbons, and offered at $3,975,000.

The 8,407 square-foot residence was constructed in 2004 with meticulous craftsmanship and attention to detail. Gracefully proportioned rooms complete with intricate millwork and quality finishes can be found throughout the five-bedroom, five full and two half-bath home, which lies on an open 3.94-acre plot of land. An expansive stone terrace and deck take full advantage of the property's surrounding scenic views of the Five Mile River, a 23.5-mile-long river located in Connecticut's northeast corner.

“This home is a spectacular custom-built masterpiece,” said O’Rourke. “Its strategic yet elegant design takes full advantage of the property’s prime location, overlooking captivating vistas and the area’s undeniably enchanting natural beauty.”

“It’s a pleasure to be representing such a well-crafted home,” said Gibbons. “Each and every room boasts a pristine quality and style with unbeatable features and amenities—an excellent example of luxurious living at its finest.”

Highlights include a chef’s kitchen with center island and eating area, library, wet bar, first-floor master bedroom with French doors that lead to a private deck, hardwood, marble and stone flooring throughout, as well as a three-car attached garage. Its close proximity to town and local transportation completes the property.
