Style And Substance

While the exterior looks classic, the inside of this 1930s Cape Cod in Kent has been completely transformed, thanks to the discerning eye of a designer. The pergola-extended home has been stylishly redone and has new bathrooms, kitchen, roof, windows and systems. The fine materials are abundant in the kitchen with its marble counters, dining room that opens to the rear bluestone terrace and living room that's separated from the sunroom by French doors. There are three bedrooms, three bathrooms, a cozy den, stone front porch and a separate art studio on the 3.9-acre grounds. Listed for $750,000 by William

Pitt Sotheby's International Realty.
