

REAL ESTATE NEWS

William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty hosts artist reception

Rowayton — William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty's Rowayton brokerage will be hosting an artist reception as part of the "Sundays at Sotheby's" series, a monthly program in which the office welcomes new local art to display in its office. The reception is typically held on the first Sunday of each month. Local artist Charlotte Sabbagh will introduce her work from 4 to 6 p.m. Sunday.

A native of Denmark, Sabbagh gets much of her artistic inspiration from her country of origin, where she continually returns each summer. She follows a contemporary artistic style, and is commonly drawn to the natural contrast of light and dark displayed in the natural beauty of the world. Sabbagh currently resides in Rowayton, and over the years, she has studied art at Parsons Fine Arts program in New York, the NYC Studio School, as well as Silvermine Arts Center in Connecticut. Her work consists of abstract paintings using oils, acrylics and mixed media, and has been shown in various individual and group exhibitions throughout Connecticut, New York City and Europe. Sabbagh also does commission work, integrating the painting with a site specific approach, in which she considers the space, materials, colors and personal interaction between the artist and client to create a unique piece of art.

Wine and hors d'oeuvres will be served at the reception.

"We are all so excited to kick off the first of our 'Sunday's at Sotheby's' artist receptions with the wonderful work of Charlotte Sabbagh," said Darien agent Molly Crosland, who spearheads much of the brokerage's artist series. "Her paintings flawlessly depict the often overlooked beauties of this world, reflecting scenes of both her life here, as well as her beloved homeland of Denmark. Displaying Sabbagh's artwork is a wonderful way to start the new year."

For more information on Sabbagh, visit www.worksbycharlotte.com.