

AGENT PROFILE Michelle Hennessey

Agent uses global experience

Realtor Michelle Hennessey has more than 15 years experience in global corporate relocation, assisting executives and their families with finding a new home quickly and smoothly. She is passionate about creating homes for her clients and their families, so it's no surprise her dedication to providing exceptional customer service and her keen ability to understand her clients' needs have resulted in a track record of highly successful corporate relocations both in and out of the New York Tri-State area.

Hennessey is skilled at negotiating contracts and effectively managing multiple aspects of a move. She is often executing the home search process for corporate relocations and ensuring the smoothest possible transitions for executives and their families. The agent is based at the William Pitt Sotheby's International Real Estate office in Southport, where she is focusing on assisting her clients with their real estate needs locally and in the surrounding areas.

The daughter of a Foreign Service officer, Hennessey's experience living abroad began when she was just 4 years old with the family's first assignment in Paris. Her passion for foreign cultures and languages only grew stronger with each new assignment, and this led her to focus her studies and her career on working with the international community. Her passion for foreign cultures and languages ultimately led her to focus her studies in political science and international relations. She began her studies at the University of Wisconsin Madison and went on to earn a master's degree in international relations from the University of Paris in France.

The Realtor gained valuable work experience abroad at the International Chamber of
