

AGENT PROFILE Robin Paquin

An artistic eye for homes

Local real estate agent Robin Paquin always had a passion for beautiful spaces to call home and even decorated the walls of her tent at camp when she was a child. After a decade as a licensed agent, she said she loves to match people with their perfect space.

"I strongly feel it is important to explore your options so that you feel confident in making such a significant investment," Paquin said of her real estate philosophy.

Her clients benefit from her unique background, she said. Her Bachelor of Fine Arts degree provides her with vision to see potential in a home that others may have overlooked. In our tech savvy society, a dramatic and professional online presence is critical to a home sale. Paquin believes in high-quality staging and photography to bring in strong offers.

Additionally, her 15 years of retail management developed a high level of organization and professionalism so that she can exceed client expectations.

Whether buying or selling real estate, Paquin recognizes it can be an overwhelming process, but she truly enjoys guiding her clients through each step of the journey toward an exciting goal. She finds the most rewarding part of her career is seeing repeat customers when

Business: William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty

Lives: New Milford

Office: Danbury

Expertise: New construction, investment, first-time home buyers, foreclosures

Contact: (203) 820-6908, rpaquin@wpsir.com

their lifestyle needs change.

She serves Northern Fairfield and Southern Litchfield counties.

Paquin, who calls New Milford home, enjoys long distance running and spending time at Candlewood Lake in her free time. She is married with twins.
