William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty is the preeminent real estate firm serving Connecticut, Westchester County, N.Y., and beyond. As the largest Sotheby's International Realty® affiliate, they offer a world of unparalleled advantages in the face of a changing real estate landscape, adapting to the digital revolution with a revamped, award-winning website. The immersive online experience focuses on how consumers are now shopping for real estate with an emphasis on photography, captivating videos and three-dimensional tours. Additionally, their offices have increased the tech prowess of their agents, and confidence among clients, resulting in the sale of more properties faster and closer to asking price than that of their competitors. Darien is proud to have a remarkable team of agents backed by a company that works tirelessly on behalf of its clients.
