

New Real Estate Professionals Introduced

Julia B. Fee Sotheby's International Realty is proud to announce the addition of Joni Alexopoulos, Tonia Tagliaferro and Jennifer Reddington to the sales team. Each of these exceptional real estate professionals offers a variety of strengths and talents as an acclaimed professional in their field. These unique talents will be an essential tool in cultivating business in the fall market and beyond.

Joni Alexopoulos' past experience has taught her the importance of utilizing the latest technology and resources to ensure that she remains knowledgeable of the evolving real estate market. She builds on her years as an educator to communicate effectively throughout the buying or selling process, distilling complex concepts and terminology into easy to understand, actionable steps.

Tonia Tagliaferro is a pioneer for assessing and recognizing the needs of her clients. Her personal approach to her business is what sets her apart from other real estate professionals. Armed with her contagious passion and exemplary negotiating skills, Tonia is on a constant mission to hunt down the best opportunity and deal for her clients.

Jennifer Reddington, a licensed Real Estate Broker and attorney, is committed to putting her clients first. She is not only a season negotiated but also has a proven record of assessing and increasing a property's value and potential. Jennifer is a people person who excels at understanding the needs and wishes of potential buyers and provides excellent advice and marketing strategies to those selling a home.

The unique skillsets of each of these real estate professionals will aid in broadening the scope and talents of an already exceptional team at Julia B. Fee Sotheby's International Realty.

harrisonherald.com