William Pitt Sotheby co-hosting dog adoption event in Westport

WESTPORT — William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty's Westport brokerage has teamed up with several Connecticut rescue organizations to promote animal adoption and help dogs find their "Furrr-Ever Home."

The event will take place at the company's Westport brokerage, located at 199 Post Road East from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Nov. 5.

All adoptable dogs were rescued from a Connecticut municipal animal control facility, or taken into their care after being surrendered by a local resident. Participating groups and organizations include Westport Animal Shelter Advocates, PAWS, Looking Glass Animal Rescue, Red Leash Rescue Inc. and City of Bridgeport Animal Control.

"Attendees can expect to meet some wonderful Connecticut dogs in need of a second chance," said Marc Caldarone, manager of William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty's Westport brokerage. "The Westport team is proud to be a part of finding them a loving place to call home."

During the Nov. 5 event, refreshments will be served, and there will also be a prize drawing with opportunities to win NFL and NHL tickets.

The event will be a "meet and greet," with attendees having the opportunity to interact with some of the dogs up for adoption, but it will not be hosting on-site adoptions.

Adoption applications and information will be available, and donations of any size are encouraged.
