Victorian-style colonial/$1.198 million

25 Encampment Place, Ridgefield

Beds: 5 Baths: 5.5 Square feet: 4,620

Steeped in history, this Ridgefield property on Encampment Place, off George Washington Highway, is so named that because the former president camped there. In fact, according to the agent, in April 1777 there were around 400 American troops on site there. Today, is it a sprawling 4,620-square-foot residence featuring two master suites — one on the main level and one on the upper level. The main level master features a bathroom remodeled in 2015. The Victorian-style colonial has four fireplaces, a sauna and a newly tiled, painted, carpeted basement with surround sound wiring. The impressive great room features soaring ceilings, a chandelier and sky lights, plus beautiful mill work around a bar. This home, built in 1999 and is set on more than an acre and a half.
