

William Pitt Sotheby's named Platinum Award winner by Cartus Broker Network

Ranked as No. 1 performing company in Fairfield County for the Cartus network

Danbury — William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty has been named a Platinum Award winner by the Cartus Broker Network for its outstanding performance during the past year, and was also recognized as the No. 1 performing firm in Fairfield County for the Cartus network.

The award was presented at the 2017 Cartus Broker Network International Conference, held March 13-15, at the J.W. Marriott Phoenix Desert Ridge Resort & Spa in Phoenix, Ariz.

Cartus Corporation is a worldwide leader in employee relocation solutions.

Platinum is the highest level of the Excellence

Awards presented to real estate firms.

Excellence Award recognition is based on performance related to a wide variety of goals including customer service, cost management, and effective analysis and marketing of homes.

Network brokers achieving Platinum level recognition for their performance in 2016 had to perform across a number of business disciplines to receive this designation.

"The Platinum Award is a recognition of extraordinary accomplishment," said Scott Becker, senior vice president, Cartus Affinity & Broker Services. "To earn the distinction, a broker must have successfully demonstrated outstanding performance in addressing customer needs, understanding local conditions, and executing best business practices. We're proud to honor William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty, as they have delivered the very highest levels of results to both their customers and the Cartus Broker Network. Ultimately, this results in our ability to provide great value to our clients and their relocating employees."

"We're thrilled to receive a Platinum Award," said Jane McWilliams, VP Business Development Relocation with William Pitt Sotheby's International Realty. "Our team has spent the entirety of 2016 putting a committed effort into achieving the best results for Cartus and their clients and transferring employees, as well as our

"To earn the distinction, a broker must have successfully demonstrated outstanding performance in addressing customer needs, understanding local conditions, and executing best business practices."

Scott Becker, senior vice president, Cartus Affinity & Broker Services brokerage. I applaud them for this honor."

The U.S. Cartus Broker Network includes 784 firms with more than 3,000 offices and 117,000 agents.