

AGENT PROFILE Roni Agress

Agent is dedicated to clients

Ridgefield real estate agent Roni Agress takes pride in her client testimonial letters, including a recent one that praised her as “the top of the charts, a consummate pro, truly the most dedicated, full-service agent” the client had ever dealt with.

“I could go on and on, but suffice it to say that while lots of people talk about their follow-through and attention to detail, Roni most definitely walks the walk. This was a complicated process, full of all kinds of potential snags and repairs that needed to be made, and Roni was on top of every single one of them,” the client wrote.

“We communicated at 6:30 a.m., and after 11 p.m. It felt as if all she had to do in her life was take care of our house sale,” the client said. “We were so blessed to have her as our advocate, on our side and so is William Pitt.”

It’s not surprising the care the agent takes with her clients as Agress’ personal interest and love of real estate began with her move to Connecticut and her own experience in searching for and buying her home in Redding. She thoroughly enjoyed and was fascinated by the home buying process. So, in 2001, the decision to establish a career in real estate was a foregone conclusion, she said.

Today, she believes every client — whether buyer, seller or renter — deserves her uncompromising dedication, care, respect and enthusiasm. The Realtor recognizes every transaction is a process, starting from day one, meeting and managing challenges every step of the way and culminating in the closing of a sale.

Her “full-speed-ahead work ethic” that is hard-wired into her DNA, as well as her enthusiasm, integrity and uncompromising care and dedication to every client in every real estate transaction speaks to who she is and how she approaches her business, she said.
