WHEATON FARM

WASHINGTON CT

$4,400,000

This 1845 Farmhouse and historically significant dairy barn was once home to Yale educated author and American priest, Nathaniel Wheaton. The farmhouse represents one of the earliest homes in Washington and one of the only Gothic Revival style homes in rural Connecticut.

Incredibly quiet and serene, the eighty-one acre compound includes a fully restored farmhouse, a dairy and calf barn, milk house, chicken coop, formal garden, meadows, the original apple orchard, sheep field, cornfield, two streams, stone walls and marble walkways.
